Pensions Politics

Last week the Government published a written statement which announced a pause in the cost cap process for public service pension schemes pending the outcome of the application to appeal the McCloud case to the Supreme Court.

A copy of the judgement can be found here <https://www.judiciary.uk/wp-content/uploads/2018/12/lord-chancellor-v-mcloud-and-ors-judgment.pdf>

The statement can be found here: <https://www.parliament.uk/business/publications/written-questions-answers-statements/written-statement/Commons/2019-01-30/HCWS1286/>

Although the statement gives no timescales for the outcome of this case we understand it could be late 2019 or early 2020 before we know.

This adds more uncertainty to what is already a very confused issue. There is no immediate implication, but there could be consequences in terms of cost and scheme design in 2020 or 2021.
